As a general rule, things of value are not to be accepted. However, this policy does not prohibit acceptance of commonly accepted business courtesies such as promotional items of nominal value which are offered to the public generally, so long as such acceptance does not create and could not be construed to create a sense of favoritism or obligation to the donor. This policy also does not prohibit employees from accepting occasional meals if they are reasonable and for a business purpose.

- B. Consultant acknowledges the foregoing as Convergys policy and warrants that it or anyone acting on its behalf (including, without limitation, Subcontractors) has not and shall not offer or extend, directly or indirectly, anything of value (including gifts, payments, loans, travel, tickets, entertainment or other benefits of value) to any of Convergys employees (except for promotional items or meals as set forth in paragraph A above).

ARTICLE 24 - NO WAIVER; Convergys' RIGHTS

Convergys failure to insist upon Consultant's performance of any provision of the Agreement shall not be a "course of dealing" or a waiver by Convergys of such provision or its right to enforce such provision in the future. Convergys payment of any sum to Consultant or Convergys receipt of any Work with knowledge of any default shall not waive such default or any other default. No waiver shall be binding upon Convergys unless it is in writing and signed by Convergys. Such waiver shall apply only to the specific default or the instance specified, and a waiver of any default shall not waive any other default, whether or not similar to the default waived. Convergys rights and remedies hereunder shall be cumulative and not exclusive of each other, shall be in addition to its other rights and remedies at law or in equity, and may be pursued separately or concurrently as it chooses.
